OTTO E. RIEMENSCHNEIDER, Union City
GEORGE D. ROTHERMEL, Camden
HARRY RUDORFER, Rahway
FRED W. RUGGE, Jersey City
MATTHEW W. C. RYAN, Bayonne
LLOYD L. SCHROEDER, Hackensack
HARRY SILVERSTEIN, Millburn
JOHN CLAUD SIMON, Camden
FREDERIC W. SMITH, Newark
JOHN J. STAHL, Paterson
ANDREW J. STEELMAN, Newark
PAUL M. STRACK, Newark
WILLIAM S. STUHR, Hoboken
MARK A. SULLIVAN, Jersey City
MARIO TURTUR, Elizabeth
WILLIAM M. UNTERMANN, Newark
W. T. VANDERLIPP, Newark
WILLIAM A. WACHENFELD, Newark
EDWIN R. WAKEFIELD, Caldwell
WALTER F. WALDAU, Newark
HARRIS J. WESTERHOFF, Paterson
NATHAN A. WHITFIELD, Montclair
SAMUEL D. WILLIAMS, Newark
CHARLES YOUNG, Nutley

New York

ALFRED A. BUERGER, Buffalo
GEORGE A. NEWBURY, Buffalo
GEORGE A. ORR, Niagara Falls

Oregon

THOMAS C. HARTFIEL, Roseburg

Pennsylvania

JOHN MORGAN DAVIS, Philadelphia

Wisconsin

RAY T. McCANN, Milwaukee
AUGUST C. MOELLER, Milwaukee
THOMAS S. NOLAN, Janesville
MAX RASKIN, Milwaukee
PIERPONT J. E. WOOD, Janesville

Index to Volume 26

June, 1942 to April, 1943

A cumulative index to the first twenty volumes is available upon request. An attractive binder, to hold four volumes, is sold for one dollar.

Authors

Adkins, Jesse C.—Speeding the jury trial, 177.
Alexander, James P.—Supreme court holds key to procedural progress, 101.
Barker, John T.—Obsolete cases should be discarded, 92.
Bradway, John S.—Legal aid clinics train young advocates, 14. Legal service for the indigent, 117.
Brand, George E.—"Mighty Oaks", Pretrial, 36. Sixth circuit rules committee, 16. Quoted on judicial selection, 132.
Burton, Senator, of Ohio—quoted on judicial primaries, 68.
Carter, Claude E.—calls for majority verdicts, 150.
Chandler, Henry P.—An administrative office for state courts, 7.
Clark, Charles E.—Simplified pleading and the demurrer, 81.
Dean, Claude M.—Fourth circuit cuts brief printing costs, 148.
Fisher, Harry M.—Judicial tenure plan for Chicago quoted, 11.
Freifield, Samuel—Broader aspects of pretrial, 24.
Grimson, Gudmundur—Pretrial is readily adapted to rural counties, 106.
Hartshorne, Richard—Priorities in trials, 79.
Herr, Dougal—Motions by mail, 145.
Kizer, B. H.—Both full and abbreviated opinions useful, 63.
Lashly, Jacob M.—If liberty is to be preserved, 35.
Long, Irvin—Practical advice concerning opinions, 22.
Longsdorf, George F.—Record on appeal in civil cases, 179.
Loring, Charles—Minnesota judiciary plan, 49.
Lummus, Henry T.—How lawyers should argue cases on appeal, 151.
Maris, Albert B.—Letter on opinion writing, 20
Martin, John D.—Problem of reducing volume of opinions, 138.
Osborn, Albert S.—Headnotes should index important facts, 153. Justice menaced in unfit courtrooms, 12. Book review, 123.
Otis, Merrill E.—Methods for preventing delay, 73.
Parker, John J.—Improvement of jury system, 71. War imposes special duties on legal profession, 3.
Peckham, I. M.—Letter on opinion writing, 64.
Perry, Van Buren—Judge-jury relationship, 67.
Rix, Carl B.—Cathedral of justice, 4.
Rossman, George—Judge-jury relationship, 67.
Sanborn, John B.—Letter on opinion writing, 20.
Scott, Charles C.—Book reviewed, 123.
Simmons, David A.—Annual report of president, 69.
Simmons, Robert G.—Why new rules of civil procedure now? 170.
Stokes, W. N.—Historic blunder in construing constitutions, 85.
Stone, Harlan F.—Dissenting opinions not without value, 78.
Sunderland, Edson R.—Arguments, decisions and opinions on appeal, 102.
Tracy, John E.—Conspicuous waste of space in digests, 122.
Tuttle, Arthur J.—Quoted on pretrial in patent cases, 13.
Warren, Edward H.—Welter of decisions, 61.
Watkins, David D.—Constitutional protection of innocence, 27.
Wekstein, Abraham—Constitutional protection against self-incrimination, 154.
Werner, Percy—True functions of public and private tribunals, 114.
Wilkin, Robert N.—Junior bar should prepare for leadership, 131.
Winslow, John B.—Courts and the papermills, 124. Learn court organization from department store, 158.
Winters, Glenn R.—Majority verdicts in the United States, 87.
Wood, John Perry—Missouri victory speeds national judicial selection reform, 142.

Arbitration

Lawyer as arbitrator dignifies profession, 5.
True functions of public and private tribunals, Percy Werner, 114.

The Bar

Criminal courts bar should be organized, 165.
Code of ethics for criminal practice, 166.

Iowa news bulletin, want ad section, 116.
Instruction in new fields of practice, 6.
Integration—sustained by Michigan supreme court, 146; by Louisiana court, 145. Who are opponents of, 112. Sought in Kansas, 40. Progress of campaigns in Colorado, Florida, Indiana, Kansas, Montana, Tennessee and Wisconsin, 187.
Lawyer as arbitrator, 5.
Legal aid clinics train young advocates, John S. Bradway, 14.
Index to state bar proceedings, 77.
Junior bar should prepare for leadership, Robert N. Wilkin, 131.
Kansas integration sought, 40.
Louisiana attack on integration fails, 145.
Michigan court sustains integration, 146.
Who are the opponents of bar integration? 112.

Court Organization

Administrative office for state courts, Henry P. Chandler, 7.
Justice is dependent upon administrative methods, 128.
Learn court organization from department store, John B. Winslow, 158.
Maryland commission on judiciary article, report, 39.
Minnesota—proposed judiciary article, 49. Plans thoroughly modern court system, 133. Text of proposed judiciary article, 135.
National Municipal League model judiciary article and comment, 51.
New Jersey—proposed judiciary article, text and comment, 45. Opportunity to improve Jersey justice, 45.

Civil Procedure

Arguments, decisions, opinions on appeal, Edson R. Sunderland, 102.
Codes presented to legislatures of Iowa, Nebraska; drafted in California and Florida, 188.
Fourth Circuit cuts printing costs, Claude M. Dean, 148.
How lawyers should argue on appeal, Henry T. Lummus, 151.
Jury trial—Improvement must come, John J. Parker, 71. Jurors should be allowed to take notes, Murray Seasongood, 10. Majority verdicts in the United States, Glenn R. Winters, 87. Majority verdicts urged in Texas, 150, 184. Knox committee, report of, 144.
Indiana study of appellate procedure, 39.
Methods of preventing delay, Merrill E. Otis, 73.
Motions by mail, 145.
New Mexico accepts federal rules, 41.
North Dakota rules drafted, 38, 106.
Priorities in trials, Richard Hartshorne, 79.
Pretrial—Broader aspects, Samuel Freifield, 24. High value in D. C. court, 80. Use in patent cases, 13. Readily adaptable to rural counties, G. Grimson, 106.
Record on appeal, George F. Longsdorf, 179.
Rule-making—Historic blunder in construing constitutions, 85. Bills introduced in Minnesota, Missouri and North Carolina, 188.
Simplified pleading and the demurrer, Charles E. Clark, 81.
Sixth circuit committee studies local federal rules, 16.
Speeding the jury trial, 177.
Supreme court holds key to procedural progress, James P. Alexander, 101.
Why new rules now? Robert G. Simmons, 170.
Wisconsin advisory committee report, 40.

Criminal Procedure

Code of ethics for criminal practice, 166.
Connecticut, a genuinely efficient grand jury inquest, 79.
Constitutional protection against self incrimination, Abraham Wekstein, 154.
Constitutional protection of innocence, David D. Watkins, 27.
Detroit, miraculous record of bail bonds, 40.
Grand jury—success of one-man grand jury in Detroit, 42; in Connecticut, 79.
Indeterminate sentence, federal judges to retain power to sentence, 44.
Legal ethics in criminal field, 39.
Louisiana new criminal code, 40.
Michigan one man grand jury, 42, 79.
New Jersey prosecutor makes crime pay, 41.

Conciliation and Small Claims

Legal aid—Legal service for the indigent, John S. Bradway, 117. Legal aid clinics train young advocates, John S. Bradway, 14. Minor courts under proposed Minnesota judiciary article, 135.

Federal Courts and Procedure

Justice is dependent upon administrative methods, 128.
Record on appeal in civil cases in federal courts, George F. Longsdorf, 179.
Sixth circuit committee studies local federal rules, 16.

Judicial Selection and Tenure

Arizona special committee created, 39.
California repeal sought, 187.
Chicago, discussion of, Harry M. Fisher, 11.
Elected without a speech, 132.
Illinois, scope of plan amplified, 11.
Indiana, Richards plan sought, 187.
Maryland commission on judiciary article, report, 39.
Minnesota proposed judiciary article, 49, 133, 135.
Missouri plan wins again, 100.
Missouri victory speeds national reform, John Perry Wood, 142.
National Municipal League model judiciary article and comment, 51.
Popular election tempts judges to advertise, 146.
Retirement plans in Maryland, Minnesota, Missouri, and West Virginia, 187.
Senator Burton's confession, 68.

Miscellaneous

Annual report of president, 69.
Book reviews—Photographic evidence, Charles C. Scott, reviewed by Albert S. Osborn, 123.
Cathedral of Justice, Carl B. Rix, 4.
Conspicuous waste of space in digests, John E. Tracy, 122.
Dissenting opinions not without value, Harlan F. Stone, 78.
Headnotes should index important facts, Albert S. Osborn, 153.
If liberty is to be preserved, Jacob M. Lashly, 35.
Judicature Society annual meeting, 11, 35.
Justice menaced in unfit courtrooms, 12.
New members of Judicature Society, 31, 94, 159, 189.
Opinions—both full and abbreviated opinions useful, B. H. Kizer, 63. Concise opinions not impossible, 100. Courts and the paper mills, John B. Winslow, 124. Letters from readers, 19, 63, 93, 127. Obsolete cases should be discarded, John T. Barker, 92. Practical advice, Irvin Long, 22. Problem of reducing volume, John D. Martin, 138. Texas bench and bar display leadership, 17. Welter of decisions, Edward H. Warren, 61.
War—Time wasted in court is aid to enemy, 67. War imposes special duties on legal profession, John J. Parker, 3. Wartime public services in lawyers' field, 99.